

Semi-Automatic Horizontal Band Saws

The Cosen SH-250R is a Semi-Automatic horizontal Bandsaw with a 260mm cutting capacity. When compared with competitive brands in the 250mm utility saw category, it provides superior durability with its rigid saw frame. In addition, the SH-250R offers more versatility and a quick return on investment. This saw is highly recommended for tool shops, die casting manufacturers and fabricators. SH-250R is easy to operate, takes up minimal floorspace, and cuts with precision.
